Re: SEC Subpoenas

Dear Mr. Strickland:

Thank you for choosing us to represent the Jefferson County Commission (the "Commission") with regard to the referenced matter. This letter replaces my letter to you of January 11, 2007.

We understand that the scope of our representation is to advise the Commission generally, and in particular with regard to Commissioners Collins, Langford and Smoot, on the subject of certain subpoenas propounded by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") to the Commission and those individual Commissioners for documents and grand jury appearances. At this point, our instructions are to provide advice and counsel on procedural, preparatory matters such as responding to the document subpoenas, and understanding the mechanics of the process in an SEC investigation such as this.
Although we are happy to discuss expanding the scope of our representation, the Commission is retaining us only for the purposes described above.

I will be the primary attorney on this matter. My hourly rate is $290.00. Natasha Wilson will work on the file as necessary to protect the Commission's interests, and her hourly rate is $220.00. Should we need the services of a paralegal, the average hourly rate is $120.00. Our hourly rates normally see a slight seniority increase around the first of each year.

Conflicts

We have conducted a conflict search, and have found none. If you have a reason to believe a conflict of interest might exist, or if you have any other concerns about our representation in this matter, please let us know as soon as possible.

Thus is not a joint representation. On the other hand, several individual Commission members have received grand jury subpoenas directed to them as individuals. For that reason, I wish to point out the relevant rules under the Alabama Rules of Professional Conduct, the ethical rules that govern lawyers. The Comment to Rule 1.7 provides that an "impermissible conflict may exist by reason of substantial discrepancy in the parties' testimony, incompatibility in positions in relation to an opposing party, or the fact that there are substantially different possibilities of settlement of the claims or liabilities in question." The Comment goes on to point out, however, that "common representation of persons having similar interests is proper if the risk of adverse affect is minimal and the requirements of (b) are met."

Although this is not a "common representation," it is worthwhile for Commissioners Collins, Langford and Smoot, as well as you and the full Commission, to review the reference to "paragraph (b)", which refers to Rule 13(b), which is set out in full below:

> A lawyer shall not represent a client if the representation of that client may be materially limited by the lawyer's responsibilities to another client or a third person, or by the lawyer's own interests, unless: (1) the lawyer reasonably believes the representation will not be adversely affected; and (2) the client consents after consultation. When representation of multiple clients in a single matter is undertaken, the consultation shall include explanation of the implications of common representations and the advantages and risks involved.

At this stage, and given the narrow scope of our retention, we do not believe that the firm's representation of the Commission raises any of these issues.

By having the firm represent the Commission, however, the Commission and the individual Commissioners - including Commissioners Collins, Langford and Smoot - are agreeing that should a conflict of interest arise in the future between or among the Commission or Commissioners, such a conflict is not a basis for waiver of the privilege nor a basis to disqualify the firm from representing the Commission or any individual Commissioners.

By your countersignature below, and the countersignatures of Commissioners Collins, Langford and Smoot, you are indicating your agreement and assent to this structure.

Document Preservation

The subpoenas constitute notice of threatened litigation. As such, they impose on the recipients certain obligations to preserve evidence, including electronic evidence such as emails and documents in their "native" electronic format. To the extent the Commission has and the individual Commissioners have in their possession documents of any sort relating to the matters described in the subpoenas, please preserve all those materials. If the Commission or the individual Commissioners have a question about the scope of this preservation obligation, please do not hesitate to give us a call.

Electronic Mail

On the subject of email, please note that we find electronic mail to be a useful and efficient way of communicating with clients, colleagues, adversaries and the court. These communications sometimes contain attorney-client privileged materials, or documents that benefit from the attorney work product protections. By having this firm represent you, the Commission and the individual Commissioners understand and agree to the use of email by firm lawyers in this representation.

Billing

The billing will be monthly and we anticipate that our statements will be paid in full within thirty (30) days, absent unusual circumstances. We want our services to be satisfactory to you, so please do not hesitate to call me if you have any questions about the bills.

The Commission and Commissioners Collins, Langford and Smoot should indicate its and their understanding of and agreement to these terms by signing two copies of this letter and returning one to me. Please keep the other for your records.

Again, we look forward to working with the Commission. Please do not hesitate to give me a call if you have any questions.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely Yours,

Jackson R. Sharman III
