(8) SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS: This Agreement shall bind the parties and their respective successors and assigns. The abatements shall be available to any successor owner of the Project or any portion thereof that operates the Project or such portion thereof as an industrial or research enterprise, as such term is defined in the Act, as from time to time amended, including without limitation any developer/lessor, any leasing company, and any affiliate of the Company, to the same extent that such abatements would have been realized by the Company had it continued to own the Project or such portion.
