Clarissa L. Kenty

Principal Manager

Introducing Clarissa Lester-Kenty, Owner and Principal Manager of Divine Images Finishing Institute, LLC and iCu Media Group. As a leading authority in the etiquette and protocol industry, Clarissa has made it her mission to guide individuals to success in both their professional and personal lives.

A graduate of Miles College with a Bachelor's Degree in Mass Communications, with emphasis in Broadcast and Public Relations, Clarissa's credentials are nothing short of impressive. She is also a graduate of the Leadership Development Institute and a licensed radio announcer through the FCC federation. Her business is WBE Certified for the state of Alabama, and her podcast show is the Leading Female Podcast Show for the State of Alabama, according to the Alabama Music Awards 2020.

But Clarissa's expertise doesn't stop there. She is a licensed minister, seasoned motivational speaker, life coach, leadership trainer, and social graces guru. Her areas of expertise include personal and business branding, social etiquette, soft skills, image consulting, manners, public speaking, building self-esteem, training and development, and more.

Clarissa's passion for helping others extends beyond her work at Divine Images Finishing Institute. She is also the founder of iCu Media Group, a livestream/videography agency that provides social media management, podcast productions, voiceover talent, commercial generation, drone services, and more. iCu Media has even done work for The World Games 2022 and live concert live streams for celebrity artists.

But despite her impressive credentials and accomplishments, Clarissa remains humble and committed to helping individuals and businesses reach their full potential. Her custom-designed private briefings and training programs cater to the individual needs of each participant, from college graduates to senior executives, and from employees of multinational corporations to sole-owner entrepreneurs.

Clarissa is happily married to Minister Ernest G. Kenty of 29 years, and is a proud mother of three amazing children, Ernest Josiah, Matthew Payton, and Taylore Rae. Get ready to be inspired by Clarissa Lester-Kenty, as she guides us to success in both our personal and professional lives.
